

Transition work for English Combined

- Choose a place that you are familiar with: it can be a town or village, or a tourist attraction near you.
1. Record a conversation between you and someone else discussing this place. It only needs to be about 30 seconds long, as I'm going to ask you to transcribe it. This can be done on your phone as audio or video.
 2. Find an informative text about your place. It can be an online historical piece or Wikipedia, or another source.
 3. Find a persuasive piece about your chosen place: this may include a leaflet persuading people to visit?
 4. Write a description about your chosen place (a side long)

Fill in a comparison table to compare how they portray their viewpoint

Text	Language devices	Structural devices
Conversation
Information
Persuasive
Description		