

Year 12

Politics is exciting because people disagree. They disagree about how people should live, what principles should guide behaviour, who should get what and how society should be organised.

What is politics, democracy in the UK, who should vote & how do different groups influence government? Explore the websites and produce the following

1. a timeline of how the vote emerged in UK (major legislation from 1832)
2. comparison table of types/definitions of democracy - direct, representative & Liberal
3. a glossary of new vocabulary (from the tasks 1&2) & definitions, to include: franchise, democracy, the constitution, the executive, separation of powers, referendums, representative and direct democracy, legitimacy and democratic deficit & turnout

Political parties, elections and voting are clearly central to who is able to make laws in the UK. From the 2017 or 2019 election results find the following:

5. How many people voted (turnout)
6. How many seats each of the main three parties won (Cons Lab and Lib-Dem)
7. An example of a minor party
8. 3 key trends in voting behaviour, for example how did ethnic minorities/women/social class/age vote?
9. If people don't vote, how else can they participate in politics?
10. How many members do the main three parties have?
